

The LNWR Recalled
by Edward Talbot
Published by Oxford Publishing Company 1987
- A Postscript

(Credits: W. B. Broadbent - WBB.)

Page 120) The photograph of 'George the Fifth' F. S. P. Wolferstan passing Kenton on the down 'Corridor' was taken by Alistair Balmain MacLeod, then aged 12, with a Brownie Box camera. He later became a railway officer, his last post being Chief Stores officer, London Midland Region. He died in 1987, some 23 years after retiring from this position. (WBB)